Compulsory REVISION comments	This is an impact assessment study; thus, I am of the opinion that the intro should tell us more about when the initiative that was under investigation was launched and what has happened since then to necessitate this study. Furthermore, the author(s) need to include a lit review section even if it is for just two subheadings to show what has been done in the area (mobile phone extension) that this study focused. I want to believe this is not a barren area in India or developing countries. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. INTRO: Very weak2. No single literature review (section)3. No recommendations in abstract.4. References badly delivered. No adherence to a single format.
