PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	This literature review discusses research on STEM Education in China in recent five years. The title has captured the importance of the study and the attention of the readers. In the abstract, the author needs to state the research topic and questions. The main results need to be provided referred to the primary studies in the literature reviewed. There are no instances of plagiarism. The conclusions are clearly stated; key points stand out. However, author needs to highlight the significance of the research in the background of the study and carry on a deeper discussion on the results presented to provide the added value of the paper.
Minor REVISION comments	Although the manuscript is well organized, minor grammatical and mechanical errors occur and need to be revised to improve the quality of the manuscript. Refer to the notes in manuscript.
Optional/General comments	Revisions need to be made based on the comments given in the manuscript.
