

Editor's Comment:

The revised manuscript is readied for publication acceptance. But, the following flaws need to be addressed in the final version:

1. Duplicated keywords (same as the paper title) should be re-selected.
2. Please number all equations in the text.
3. Please define "rabi" season to the international readers.
4. "S. No." is not in sequence in Table 2.
5. A thorough proof-check and English check is highly recommended.
