Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The native English content should be checked.- The introduction part was written very good just the paragraphs should be separated.- Tables should be checked according to the format of the journal.- In your methods, you mentioned that you used the alkaloid extract 2 times including 2 weeks after seedling growth and the next after one month. On the whole just 2 times application are enough? Why didn't you check the increasing time?- In conclusion, which concentration of this extract do you suggest for usage and exactly in which developmental stage of the pepper plants and how many times with which intervals?
Optional/General comments
