PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	The chronology they expose is confusing. Apparently, in 2017, a functional pituitary adenoma was diagnosed and surgically removed, and later in 2021 he presented another adenoma that is now becoming an ACTH producer? The two events must be separated or the dates corrected. The chronology they expose is confusing. Apparently, in 2017, a functional pituitary adenoma was diagnosed and surgically removed, and later in 2021 he presented another adenoma that is now becoming an ACTH producer? The two events must be separated or the dates corrected.
Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments	There is inconsistency in the chronology of events, because if an ACTH-producing adenoma had already been removed, it is not a transformation of a silent adenoma into an ACTH-producing one
