PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. There are plenty of language slips and some of them are indicated in yellow and alternative expressions are given in red within parentheses.</li> <li>2. Let the author follow the instructions given in appropriate places.</li> <li>3. The author is expected to follow the 9th edition of MLA Handbook for intext citations and references.</li> <li>4. The author should ensure that each paragraph starts with his/her own topic sentence and substantiated with proper textual evidence and quotes from secondary sources.</li> <li>5. The review of the related literature is compulsory to identify the epistemological gap in the field. It is not enough to state that such books have been studied.</li> </ol>
Minor REVISION comments	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Let the author use all three major types of sentence structures to avoid monotony and repetition.</li> <li>2. Greater care should be taken to avoid spelling mistakes of proper nouns.</li> <li>3. Informal writing style should be strictly avoided.</li> <li>4. Title can be shorter like "Polarized Protagonists in Aravind Adiga's Novels under the Impact of Globalization."</li> </ol>
Optional/General comments	It is better for the author to incorporate all the suggestions and then to read the entire article in terms of coherence and unity.
