Compulsory REVISION comments	This is an outstanding research and a commendable write-up, I almost had nothing to review. Nevertheless, kindly check out my minor questions/corrections: The first two paragraphs of your introduction are not referenced. Kindly cite a literature for those to avoid plagiarism. I understand the three different concentrations for the chilli extract but kindly explain what prompted the different concentrations for the other four botanicals; one would think they will be of the same concentration. The duration of the experiment was not precise. Indicate the number of months used.
Minor REVISION comments	The grammar is superb with only few mistakes that are almost unnoticeable. Kindly check the mistakes and correct them.
Optional/General comments	Well- done!
