

Editor's Comment:

I have gone through the article. Only little bit the author has written more

Other reviewers sent link for model articles also. Nothing he referred, nothing is written elaborately.

If the author is not capable of bringing out the article in good shape, I suggested for seeking help from his guide.

As such it can't be used for publication, which may tend to reduce the journal's reputation.

Pls give suitable instructions to the author to refer many more correlation articles and let him make his own article in similar way. Only then it can be accepted for publication.
