PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	1. In the Tile subheading, change the sentence "What relation of vitamin D levels and disease in children aged 0 to 12 years" with "What Relation of Vitamin D Levels and Disease in Children Aged 0 to 12 Years". 2. In the Abstract subsection (a) The authors should state the research methodology used explicitly. Please complete it (b) The author has not described the findings/results of the research conducted. Please add it. 3. In the Introduction subsection (a) Authors need to state/mention the purpose of the research in the introduction subsection after reviewing why the research topic is essential or after reviewing the gap analysis. Please complete it. (b) Generally, the main part of the structure of a scientific article consists of subsections/subtitles: Introduction, Research Methodology, Results and Discussion, and Conclusion. Therefore, the authors must change the structure of the manuscript subsections following general standards in reputable scientific articles consisting of the Introduction, Related work, Methodology, Result and Discussion, and Conclusion subsections. Note: Often, articles do not include a Related Work subsection; in a structure that does not have a Related Work subsection, a description related to related work is discussed in the Introduction subsection. Please make changes to the subsection structure of your manuscript. 4. In the Conclusion subsection In the Conclusion subsection, the authors not only describe the research findings but also the novelties found that have not been introduced/researched by previous researchers and provide suggestions for further research on the shortcomings of the research carried out. Please complete it.
