See comments (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	The most recent manuscript entitled "Genetic diversity study of melon native landraces using ISSR markers in Kurdistan region of Iraq," is both educational and practical. This article may be of interest to readers of the Journal and other academics working on the subject globally. A few minor typo errors apart, the results and discussion are well-written. This work is praiseworthy because it involves a vital melon fruit crop. I believe that this work should be published with some minor changes and after taking the following things into account: 1. Add botanical name of the plant in the manuscript title. 2. Minimum keywords should be five and meaningful words. 3. In Table 1 correct (c°) as (°C) 4. Provide all abbreviations in full after the keywords. 5. Stick to the journal's reference format for example following reference. 6. Add more recent references with all possible DOI numbers in the references. 7. Add brief conclusion of your study.
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	yes
