

Editor's Comment:

1. The manuscript deal with good title and suitable of publication in the Asian Journal of Pregnancy and Childbirth
2. The author(s) took in consideration all the notes of the reviewers except one (already marked in the text) therefore the note should be arranged or removed from the text.
3. There still some very simple grammar notes mentioned the text should be arranged.
4. There are serious problems in references writing already mentioned in text should be arranged by the author.
5. The DOI of the references are not active. I suggest to activate all the DOI
6. The manuscript is accepted after doing the required amendment.
