Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	There is no full stop after the title. The introduction must be improved. Develop the subject with concrete data from the region (breed, age of operation, nutrition regime, lactation time, ...) and other official data. References must also be inserted. It should be taken into account, if genetic progress is desired with other breeds, how they will acclimatize and be able to withstand thermal and nutritional stress... there are studies in the literature that describe genetic transfer and limitations and failures ... Could you fill in what exactly was used for vaccination - for which diseases and which deworming and vaccination plan. You can give more details about the animal shelter (square meter/animal, shade, comfort). Nutrition is very important in milk production - can you specify the amount ingested per day? to the lactating cow? Is the water discreetly fresh? Complete with genetic data about animals. What breed were the cows, how many days after calving were they milked? Use newness citations and references here in the chapters Results and Discussions section. Detail all the abbreviations used, especially in the Table At conclusion, used the geographic area. References – can be update white more recently publications
