Minor REVISION comments	After a slow and critical reading of the present work, I would like to comment that, in my opinion, it is an interesting narrative review regarding coronary artery disease and cardiovascular stents. The authors present the diagnosis, risk factors, potential treatment options using different stents and their availability, as well as relevant benefits. I consider that the article is valuable and can have important implications for clinical practice. In order to improve the quality of the manuscript, I have some suggestion: 1. Please include the details of the broader impacts on the study made, addressing the future scope and topics that are important.
