Compulsory REVISION comments	This article is a Literature Review about all the potential benefits de Pomegranate offers to inhibit the inflammatory and destructive response caused to the tissues by de Sars-CoV-2 virus. Offering a lot of important recent information, concerning the Covid-19
Minor REVISION comments	I enjoy reading it and I believe is very complete. Since it is a very recent topic there in not much literature showing cases were the consumption of pomegranate really shows benefits controlling Covid-19. If there is at least one article it can be added to the article.
Optional/General comments	Overall it is a great review article of the possible benefits of the pomegranate over the Sars-Cov-2 virus. Will be great to go one more step ahead and do a clinica study with the pomegranate
