Compulsory REVISION comments	The references indicated in the introduction must be more recent, last years Authors should better describe the types of pesticides by indicating their physical and chemical characteristics and also the toxicity of them. The authors do not refer to the dosages of application, this is important since normally the adverse effects of the use of pesticides are related to the excess of amounts applied. The authors do not indicate whether some of these pesticides mentioned have already been eliminated in developed countries or if their manufacture has been suspended. Some abbreviations should be corrected in the text, for example: ml should be written mL; ppm should be written mgL<sup>-1</sup>
