Compulsory REVISION comments	The work is very well designed. however, it has its shortcomings. The community in which the study was conducted was not specified. There is only one group in the study and there is no control group. In my opinion, it would not be appropriate to say that the rate of depression and/or anxiety obtained without a control group is high. this study was only a descriptive study. I think that evaluating it together with the control group will contribute positively to the literature.
Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments
