Compulsory REVISION comments	1.The paper is highly needed to rewrite with better English skills. I see some of the sentences did not have ant verb or grammatically errors were found at the context. 2. The results were so week in both abstract and in the result section. I wondered about the result that they related to SUVs but authors did not use the PERCIST criteria for assessment of response to therapy. They should perform RECIST criteria in combination of PERCIST for better evaluation of tumour response. 3.In the discussion section there were many errors including the grammar errors and difficulties in the understanding the results compare to the other related researches. I highly recommend to authors to rewrite the paper again depend on the recommendations for better understanding the results.
