Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	It is important to develop these two hypotheses in depth, the work and the conclusions will be complete. Hypothesis 1: In the age of the digital economy, the digital skills of older people are likely to affect their intentions to use smart eldercare services. Hypothesis 2: In the age of the digital economy, older people's digital skills are likely to affect their digital attitudes towards smart eldercare services.
Optional/General comments	I congratulate the author for the work, only that he reinforces the demonstration of the first 2 hypotheses, especially hypothesis 1 with some numerical or econometric demonstration of China especially. It is important to develop these two hypotheses in depth, the work and the conclusions will be complete.
