Compulsory REVISION comments	The title of this article is "Microbial inoculation influencing physical properties of composts produced from different agro-wastes". In my opinion, this is a good topic to work on and it is very interesting to study the influence of bacteria on the physical-chemical nature of the compost. The results are interesting. But the analysis is incomplete and insufficient. The methodology should explain the inclusion criteria of the bacterial strains to be used in the study. The characteristics in terms of performance on the quality of the compost should be shown. In the results, the effect of these bacterial isolates on each component of the compost, for example on the Bulk density, particle density, porosity, Maximum water holding capacity, moisture content, Angle of Repose density and HR
