PART 1: Review Comments

Compulsory REVISION comments	English needs to be revised. Too many misspelled words. The manuscript writing is very poor.
Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments	Review the abstract because there are words starting with capital letters in the middle of sentences. Review variables of type pods / plant, the correct is pods/plant. Write like this: Three spacings (20 cm x 10 cm, 30 cm x 10 cm, and 40 cm x 10 cm) and three concentrations of panchagavya (2, 3, and 5%) were used. Keywords must be adjusted according to the author guidelines of this Journal. In general, review the units. There must be a space between the numeric value and the unit, for example: 20 cm x 10 cm, and not 20cm x 10cm. In the INTRODUCTION use the percentage symbol, for example, 18-22% and not 18-22 per cent. Citations throughout the text should be numbered, for example [1] and not (Reddy and Reddy, 2010). The MATERIALS AND METHODS is very poor. You need to detail all the procedures used to achieve the results. Topics and subtopics need to be numbered. For example, topic: 1. INTRODUCTION . Subtopic: 3.1 Effect of Spacing and Panchagavya on Growth Attributes of Chickpea in the topics 3. RESULTS AND DISCUSSION .
