Compulsory REVISION comments	Thank you for providing me the opportunity to review the paper on drought in Burkini Faso. I enjoyed the short piece and I found the paper to be well organized and well written. The key references are cited, the abstract is informative, the length is fine, the methods are appropriate, the graphics are publishable (more than publishable – they are very nice), and the results are interesting. I found the entire effort to be of the highest quality. I have two small suggestions to improve the manuscript. One, include "Burkina Faso" in the title – I had never heard of the Massili Basin. Two, the x-axes in Figure 2 should show the actual years (1960-2021) rather than the current labels. By the way, Figure 1 is very nice!!
