Compulsory REVISION comments	The results could be deepened especially in the in vitro study of the inhibition halos according to the time observed. In the same way in the in vivo study, the success presented in a photo is not of weight, place the tables and the statistics used on the growth of the fungi. The bibliography is outdated, more than 60% are references that go from 1977 to 2013, 6 are from 2014 to 2016 and only 9 are from 2018 onwards. The format of the bibliography is not in accordance with the guidelines of the authors of the journal
Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments	Both the topic and the methodology are well detailed so it is reproducible, but it is necessary to give more support to the results, it has to be more robust in its presentation.
