Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	It would be worth posting more images demonstrating the benefits of the platform.
Optional/General comments	Many congratulations to the authors and more for the effort in the development of the educational platform. I consider very important the use of this type of tools in education, they are interactive, of immediate access and when they are required, as the authors point out, they break down physical barriers. It is very valuable to have the final evaluation of the cycle and its comparison with previous cycles, as well as recognizing the limitations of their work and the areas of opportunity for improvement.
