Compulsory REVISION comments	The structure and writing of the article are correctly presented, even when Discussion can be improved 2.3-... garlic...? Fig.2 is not clear, for some compounds is included structure but not spectrum Fig 3a and 3b captions are the same. Which is the difference? Idem for 3c and 3d
Minor REVISION comments	It is necessary the inclusion of units for every measurement(diameter) and taking into account coherently the significant figures for them (error). It is not convenient use the brand Augmentin, but the composition of the product as a combination of two antibiotics. The conclusion must be clarified, as if activity is low, the extracts should not be used to prevent disease. How can be continued the research?
Optional/General comments	Some comments are included in the manuscript
