

Editor's Comment:

I checked very carefully the comments of the two reviewers and the revised version of the manuscript 2023/AJAEES/97807. Unfortunately, the authors have not followed the serious comments and suggestions of the second reviewer and the paper presents serious flaws in various points (the title has Grammarly wrongs, the abstract is longer than the introduction, weak introduction section also, serious discussion absence, and weak conclusions). My decision is: major revision of the paper (I do not suggest rejection because the reviewers avoided doing this).
