Compulsory REVISION comments	The topic is an interesting one but the author needs to improve her presentations to make the work worthwhile. In the first instance, <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The author should include in the abstract how data collected were analyzed and delete all area marked with red and applied those in green 2. The introduction seems to be lengthy. The author should lift some of the empirical studies to literature review. 3. The literature review is better structured into: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2.1. Conceptual frame work 2.2. Empirical and theoretical framework instead of the minor sub-heads given 4. The author should indicate how data analyzed 5. The author should create a sub-heading on Data presentation and analysis, as the result can only be discussed in glaring of a well presented and analyzed data . 6. The author should separate the data then go on to discuss the finding. Including the data collected in the discussion, makes the work so clumsy. 7. While discussing the findings, the author should endeavor to be objective than subjective. 8. E-sources should be cited accordingly (see comment in main work). 9. The author should delete all areas marked in red and apply those in green. 10. She should thoroughly edit the entire work minding her punctuations and tenses.
