

Editor's Comment:

I approved the paper for publication in the Journal .

I see that the title is to some extent long

I recommend to publish the paper in the final revised form. The reasons are as follows:

- 1- One of reviewers gives comment "accept the paper as it is".
- 2- Two reviewers give comments "Accept after minor revision".

According to the comments, the authors have corrected the paper carefully.

Therefore, the paper has enough value for publication in the International Astronomy and Astrophysics Research Journal.
