Compulsory REVISION comments 1. Is the manuscript important for scientific community? (Please write few sentences on this manuscript) 2. Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title) 3. Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? 4. Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate? 5. Do you think the manuscript is scientifically correct? 6. Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	The manuscript is important for scientific community because it not shows technical and proper analytic methods used in research work but also presents an idea good for any researcher in that area. The title is suitable The abstract is not comprehensive. In order words, it does not embrace all that is required for better understanding of what the work is trying to say. In the light of this, it should include also the analytical methods, the hypothesis, research questions and objectives. Not really, there should be headings for research questions and research objectives, brief review of literature relevant to the work outside introduction, brief description of the research design and analytical method(s). Yes, the manuscript is scientifically correct, but has to corrected Some of the references in the list should be looked at for more recent ones and follow due recent APA style. Italize journal and books appropriately.
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	Yes, the language/ English is suitable for scholarly communications.
Optional/General comments	i) It is imperative to use recent academic materials for writing academic papers like this unless there are convincing reasons to use dated materials. ii) These hypotheses are opposing each other. They should be two null hypotheses seeking to be proved or not. iii) Which is the correct spelling of the law or model: Owkun's or Okun' ? if they are the same person, consistency is required for better understanding iv) The first equation signifies linear relationship, however, the changes in the unemployment rate and changes in the growth rate of output is not well represented ,therefore appropriate symbol should be employed.
