

Editor's Comment:

On studying the paper, I found the following:

1. Title is related.
2. Abstract is comprehensive.
3. Key-words are sufficient.
4. Introduction is relevant.
5. Literature is meaningful.
6. Research Methodology is explanatory.
7. Data analysis, result and discussion descriptive.
8. Conclusion is convincing.
9. References are enough.

I recommend the article entitled "Stock Returns and State-Dependent Effects of Changes in Exchange Rate and Money Supply from Central Banks" for publication.
