The abstract contains the main problem of the article, research objectives, methods used, and findings produced in this article. Introduction: There is too much discussion about little millet; the focus is on the contribution of each element of the supply chain. The text needs to reference the roles and contributions of farmers, processors, and marketers in the little millet supply chain—the risks facing each. What are the conditions of similar supply chains in other countries, or what other products? Research has been carried out on what the small millet supply chain is, so this research was carried out. What method approach will be used, what are the advantages of the method Results and Discussion Requires emphasis on the causes of additional profits from each actor Conclusion The conclusion requires no reference The conclusion contains the level of profit obtained by farmers, processors, and marketers. What are the weaknesses of this research so that future research needs to be carried out?
