Optional/General comments	The authors need to update the references in their manuscript by getting rid of old references, such as those published in 1970 and 1995. They will need to incorporate current references related to the topic of their article. The authors do not mention the environmental potential of palm and olive trees in the context of hyper-accumulation. Examples (https://doi.org/10.1016/j.jhazmat.2022.128906 and doi: 10.3390/plants10010137) The authors make no mention of the use of supercritical fluid techniques for environmental phytoremediation and the accumulation of heavy metals. There are many references in the field as (https://doi.org/10.1021/ie4035708) To improve the clarity of the review, the authors are advised to include histograms and graphs that compare the yields and findings of different techniques. This would aid in better understanding the originality of their review.
