However, some points in the manuscript should be reconsidered. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Author should add background statements and reason for doing this research in the beginning of the abstract. 2. The title of the article should be replaced with appropriate and grammatically sound title. One title I would recommend is "Impact of Cropping Systems on Soil Organic Carbon Levels and Enzyme Activity". 3. Introduction is very short. Author should add more details and citations from recent literature. 4. The research is scientifically correct but author should add letters when the statistical values obtained showing significance. 5. Author may add more references from the literature that are not older than five year.
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	The whole manuscript needs English language evaluation for improvements.
