Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments	The article is timely as it focuses on our world's critically needed intervention to support people that have been affected by climate change. It is also technically sound – good methodology, results and conclusion. I only have a recommendation for the writer to follow up by doing another study focusing on the effectiveness of the adaptation interventions. It is one thing to know farmers are embracing various approaches while effectiveness is another. One farmer may be desperate to try what is offered – multiple adaptation types but may benefit less. Another farmer may adopt just one adaptation intervention but may benefit more (for example using irrigation). Hence, the next level of research should focus on effectiveness so that we can inform policies.
