

Editor's Comment:

I think, indeed, the crucial point of this article is the question, pointed out by reviewer 1, if the patient was really awake AND SPONTANEOUSLY BREATHING which is not likely under a medication of fentanyl, propofol and cisatracurium that should lead to respiratory muscle's paralysis.

This should be clarified by the authors. If not, I think that the article cannot be published.

Editor's Details:

Dr. Oswin Grollmuss
Professor, Congenital Heart of Centre Chirurgical Marie Lannelongue, University Paris XI, France.