

Editor's Comment:

I write you in regards to manuscript entitled "Igbo Indigenous Culture at the Mercy of Western Culture Dominance: what can the Mass Media do?" which you submitted to Asian Journal of Education and Social Studies. I have just received these review results from reviewers. The authors should make these required revision for Clear Objective, Introduction, adding more recent and important literature, checking grammatical errors, clear conclusion, more details about Methodology, and Language-polishing. The authors should make it using point-to-point revision.

Therefore, based on the contribution and value of manuscript, I should choose "Major Revision".
