

Editor's Comment:

After carefully reviewing and reading the submitted docs, I would like to say the following:

1. the work seems to me relevant for the theme it addresses;
2. however, it seems to me that the abstract does not effectively meet the scientific parameters to which it should correspond. It is too descriptive and is very much at the level of common sense. In addition, it does not mention the objectives, methodology and conclusions;
3. I would like to draw attention to the revision of the abstract,
