

Editor's Comment:

I believe you are still doing well. the research objective stated in the text should be written in the abstract. This helps readers to know why the research is important as they start reading. I recommend the publication of the paper pending the research objective.

Editor's Details:

Dr. Takalani Samuel Mashau
Associate Professor, School of Education, University of Venda, South Africa.