

Editor's Comment:

A sufficient part of Reviewers suggestions have been taken in consideration.

Yet, a detail remains to be corrected : as already pointed out by one Reviewer, the references should be called in the text in an homogeneous manner : specifically, at line 140 of the revised manuscript, the reference [37] should be explicated by the corresponding names of the authors and date, as is done all along in the rest of the manuscript.

After this minor ultimate correction is made, the revised manuscript is OK for publication in IJECC.
