Have a nice day. I hope you are fine. This article is an important study for the scientific world. However, the reviewer's comments regarding the article should be taken into consideration.

I read reviewer's comments about this article "Geotechnical investigation using Engineering Geological and Mapping techniques in the Niger Delta Sub-region, Nigeria"

Reviewer's comment is important. If the authors correct the important points stated below this article will be published;

- The methodology should be reconsidered,
- English grammar should be received some technical words should be used correctly as English grammar. For example;
  1. Engineering geological  Geological engineering
  2. Parameter Mapping  Parametric Mapping
- References should be more up to date.
