I don't think this needs capitals as it is not the name of an official building, capital or person. Missed Nursing Care. Table1 on page 8, there should be a comma between table and 1. ie table 1 Make sure the following sentence is with the Table; Table 1: Frequency distribution of types of Missed Nursing Care Activities. At the moment, Table 1 is on the next page to the heading. Table 2 is appearing over different pages, so split over two pages. Put it all on the one page. On page 12, it states; In the "low "level category of missed nursing care, nurses. Put the inverted comma after low not before level. ie. In the "low" level category On page 14, I'm wondering why there is another bracket before 27. (10, (27, 28, 29). Should it be (10, 27, 28, 29). In this sentence below, put in a comma. Make sure whenever the workload is heavy additional shift is called so that the current shift is not overwhelmed. Make sure whenever the workload is heavy, additional shift is called so that the current shift is not overwhelmed. I can't see any conflict of interest, or ethical issues of concern. The abstract is sufficient. The subsection and structure is appropriate. Yes it is scientifically correct. References are OK
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?
Optional/General comments	Exceptionally interesting and well written.
