(Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Inclusive education has interest and is the subject of many scientific studies in the field. The title of the work, the purpose and objectives of the research are correctly formulated, and the investigative approach is well structured. - The appeal to statistical-mathematical research methods is an aspect that scientifically bases the investigation. - The author answers argued to the questions of the research, and the explanations are supported by numerous studies in the sphere of inclusive education. - The references are related to the theme of research, relevant and current. However, we suggest that the citation of the authors in the text and their scoring at the end of the manuscript respect the guide of the authors.
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?
Optional/General comments	To be classified in the original Research Papers section, we recommend the text to be included in a smaller number of pages / words. For example, the section "Perceptions of Early Grade Educators in the Implementation of Inclusive Education" can be better systematized, and the qualitative analysis from the interpretation of data can be expressed in a more comprehensive way.
