(If not please suggest an alternative title) 3. Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? 4. Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate? 5. Do you think the manuscript is scientifically correct? 6. Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	Yes, a lot. It is very important to plan actions on public health politics. Yes Yes Yes Yes Yes I had one doubt: the authors wrote that the students gave consent to participate in the study, but many of them were younger than 18 years old. Was it not necessary to have the parents' consent in these cases, instead of the child's consent?
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	Although it is possible to understand what the authors mean, grammar must be reviewed, since there are a lot of mistakes in the text.
Optional/General comments
