

Editor's Comment:

Minor revision.

There are many spelling and writing errors that have not been corrected. For example in the Abstract: zaidseason, corbon, harvet, 40.79 %, 30kg. In introduction: Vignamungo protients. and successively through the entire text. Citations are few, and additional recent citations are missing, which should be written uniformly. In conclusion, the quality of the text in English is not adequate for the original publication of a scientific article.
