

Editor's Comment:

I recommend to publish the paper in the final revised form. The reasons are as follows:

- 1- Two of reviewers give comment such as "Accept as it is"
- 2- One of reviewers gives comment such as "The manuscript is clear, concise, reasonably self-contained presentation of the material and Figs. This work is good"
- 3- Three reviewers give comments such as "Accept after minor revision".

According to the comments, the authors have corrected the paper carefully.

Therefore, the paper has enough value for publication in the International Astronomy and Astrophysics Research Journal.
