

Editor's Comment:

Dear Editor:

I have read the files referring to the Work JERR 100657, entitled "A Comparison of Inventory Strategies for a Manufacturer within the Air Conditioning Industry". I believe that the author has satisfactorily answered in detail the remarks made by the referees.

Therefore, the article can be published, changing before the author the referencing system to the one used by the JERR journal, with references that follow an increasing sequence of integers enclosed between square brackets.
