	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your Methodology be improved upon. It should provide context to the research you are presenting and investigating, but the research methodology is not presented sufficiently • In data collection of the individual's subsection, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Please mention the model of balance. - Please indicate the situation, type, model and all necessary details. - Please mention the method of selection of individuals in the study. - How the study was designed? - How the study was carried out? - How the data were analyzed? • Figures 1 was not refer to in the text. Kindly check • Authors use of transitional words to highlight clear and thoughtful connections among ideas is impressive. • The result and discussion section were clearly written for better understanding. However, it can be improved further by correlatiing your results with previous literature is essential. So, discuss your own results before relating them to the results of other published work. Then correlate your work with at least 7-8 recent publications either in support or in contradiction for justification of results. Kindly frame it along the following lines: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Main findings of the present study ii. Comparison with other studies iii. Implication and explanation of findings iv. Strengths and limitations v. Conclusion, recommendation, and future direction. • Conclusion is scanty and need improvement • The references are comprehensive and appropriate. • There is enough new content in this paper to distinguish it from other works. • The submission provides enough new material for journal publication. Specific Reviewer Comments and Suggestions: a) Please give a frank account of the strengths and weaknesses of the article (in 100-200 words):
