Compulsory REVISION comments 1. Is the manuscript important for scientific community? (Please write few sentences on this manuscript) 2. Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title) 3. Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? 4. Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate? 5. Do you think the manuscript is scientifically correct? 6. Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	Yes. It is important to the community. The title is suitable. The abstract is not comprehensive. It requires to be revised and focus to the details of variables. The parts of the research are appropriate but the content in each part must be revised. The presentation of findings must be the same on how the problems were stated. There are hanging discussions in the findings. Statement of the respondents can be removed. The manuscript is not scientific. It requires inferential statistics to describe the data. Qualitative research must be combined with quantitative research to make it more scientific in the presentation. References on statistical computation are available in the internet. Please check the grammar and the correct use of punctuation marks. Itemize the details by using Hindu Arabic numerals (1,2,3...). Recommendations are not statement of obligations. Therefore, the use of SHOULD must be changed to MAY.
