

Editor's Comment:

It is very interesting, focusing on the relationships between public spendings and economic growth.

For a future analysis, a comparison between Nigeria and another country would be beneficial to understand the problem.

And, however, the term recurrent may be replaced with a synonym of economic activity, not of a disease, pandemic...

OK for publishing.

Editor's Details:

Dr. Alexandru Trifu
Professor, "Petre Andrei" University of Iasi, Romania.