Compulsory REVISION comments <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Is the manuscript important for scientific community? (Please write few sentences on this manuscript) 2. Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title) 3. Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? 4. Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate? 5. Do you think the manuscript is scientifically correct? 6. Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The manuscript is very important for the scientific community due to technology transfer and it may improve the productivity of the farmer/producers in the country as well as the world. ➤ And also the title of this article is suitable because of the current issue of the farmer/producer. That means, almost all the farmers practice traditionally farming system. This leads to low productivity. ➤ Yes the abstract of the article is comprehensive and subsections and structure of the manuscript is almost appropriate. ➤ Based on the guideline of the journal, majority of the manuscript is written in scientifically good. ➤ Some of the references are old (greater than 10 years), so the authors must be up to date the old references. E.g. Mishra, J. P., Masood, A. and Arya, R. L. (2001), Singh, G. and Singh, OP. (1993), Balyan, J.S. and Seth, Jagdish. (1991) etc... ❖ Additional comment ➤ The title needs a little modification for example: 'the study' is not important. Therefore, the title may be "The Effect of Diverse Intercropping System on Growth, Yield and Profitability of Indian Mustard (Brassica juncea L.): Variety Azad Mahak"
Minor REVISION comments <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications? 	➤ The quality of the article is very good, but the author/s must be included the abbreviations because there are a lot of abbreviations in the body of the manuscript.
Optional/General comments	❖ General comment, picture/photo during practical or laboratory work is very important in the manuscript. Therefore, the author should be adding some important photo or picture in the paper for attractiveness of the redder.
