If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form. (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	The following paper provides a comprehensive review of the literature on sustainable tourism practices. The choice of topic also represents the scope or setting of the study. The abstract explains everything in great detail. The research's limitations statement is just one of several important caveats to keep in mind. Authors should also review the guidelines, especially with regard to the required length of the abstract. The job is well organized, with a systematic strategy that covers the entire thing from beginning to end. From a scholarly point of view, it may be said that this work meets the criteria for a quality academic paper. It is highly suggested that authors pay closer attention to the citations they use. When writing a paper, it is standard practice to only cite sources that were actually used by the author. On top of that, we make sure that the bibliography contains all of the sources we cite in the debate. If a quote is used in the body of the article, the author is expected to create a link from that quote to the related reference in the bibliography (see the guidelines for more information). Authors should pay close attention to how their tables appear in the text to make sure they are formatted correctly and that their work is consistent.
Minor REVISION comments 1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	The language used is generally understandable. However, authors must pay close attention to a number of sentences, especially to avoid typos and inconsistencies in punctuation.
Optional/General comments	This publication strongly endorses this manuscript for its many scholarly and practical contributions.
